ARMAGH CATHEDRAL SERVICE FOR ORDINATION OF DAVID HAWTHORNE

On Sunday 9th June at 11am David Hawthorne, a Diocesan Reader and member of our Parish Group is being ordained as a Deacon, and will become Rev. David Hawthorne.

The Service will take place in Armagh Cathedral. As a result of this, the Select Vestry made the decision to close Mullaglass Church that Sunday and instead encourage everyone to come to the Cathedral and support David on his new journey.

Bessbrook, Ballymoyer and Belleek have all made the same decision and so there will be NO Sunday service in any of the four churches that Sunday.

Bessbrook Church have made the excellent decision to try and make a Parish event out of this, and not only attend the service but have some lunch as well in Armagh.

Now nothing has been booked yet, and the church is currently looking to gauge interest, see how many people would be interested in coming along.

If enough people are interested, we can look at getting a mini-bus, and booking the carvery.

Mullaglass Vestry love this idea, and are encouraging our congregation to join with Bessbrook, get to know one another, and have a nice Sunday afternoon.

If you're interested please let a Select Vestry member know, so we can work out numbers.

Bessbrook need numbers by Friday 24th May.

AFTERNOON TEA

On Saturday 22nd June, the church plans on hosting an Afternoon Tea. These have been very successful the past few years, bringing people together for a great afternoon of fun and conversation. A great way to spend time with family or friends.

Tickets are priced at £10, which covers a full High Tea spread.

Please speak to any Select Vestry member for more information.

All money raised will go towards church funds.
